

Terrenus Vinhas Velhas Reserva tinto 2013

Dark ruby colour. Nose very intense and complex; notes of dark fruits, balsamic and spicy wood. Good structure, very ripe and smooth tannins, nice acidity, long after taste. Last bottles now at 15% discount (normal price EUR 42,35)

|                 |                                                      |
|-----------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| Producer        | Rui Reguinga                                         |
| Region          | Alentejo                                             |
| Volume          | 75.0 cl.                                             |
| Grape Variety   | Aragonês, Trincadeira, Grand Noir, Alicante Bouschet |
| Drinking window | 2023-2027                                            |
| Alc.            | 14.5%                                                |
| Vinificatie     | In oak barrels with prolonged skin contact.          |
| Rijping         | 18 months in oak barrels and 12 months in bottle     |

36.00 €